Price List

F L Mildred & Sons Funeral Directors

Our Simple Funeral service Includes:

- A Park coffin
- We will prepare, collect and distribute all the required documentation and co-ordinate external payments for you that are necessary for the funeral to legally proceed
- Transportation of the person who has died in one of our hearses directly to the crematorium or cemetery
- Access to Dignity Legal Services (excluding Scotland, Jersey and Northern Ireland).

Your Funeral Director will:

- Personally oversee your chosen arrangements of either a burial or cremation at a time and date of our choosing
- Be present at your side on the day of the funeral and direct all in attendance
- Ensure sufficient pallbearers are available and instructed to escort the coffin with dignity and respect

Our services to the person who has died:

- Our professional team will bring the person who has died into our care during normal office hours using Dignity's experienced and fully trained personnel, specialist vehicles and equipment
- We will dress them in a suitable basic gown and prepare them for the funeral according to your personal wishes
- They will receive continuous care as long as they are in our protection, resting in climate controlled mortuary facilities
- We will provide a private chapel of rest during normal office hours to allow visiting and some private time with the person who has died

Some Important points about the Simple Funeral service

- You will be provided with a limited choice of time and day for the service
- Services are limited to those detailed and will not include: Organisation of floral tributes, obituaries or service stationery
- Only the Park coffin can be used, services to be held at place of committal. A service at an alternative location is not possible and there will be no limousines or funeral cortège
- The following services will incur an additional cost:
 - Bringing the person who has died into our care outside of normal office hours
 - Our embalming service
 - Delivery of ashes

Please check with your Funeral Arranger which of Our Additional Services are available with the Simple Funeral.

Full Service Funeral

£2,805

Our service to you

£1,155

Our staff, premises, facilities, services and expertise will be made available to you whenever you require them. We will visit you at home if you prefer to discuss your individual requirements and take instructions accordingly. We will advise and guide you on all aspects of the funeral and liaise with third parties on your behalf. We will prepare, collect and distribute all the documentation and pay all 'External Payments' necessary on your behalf to allow the funeral to legally proceed at your chosen setting.

We will organise on your behalf, and can provide additional costs for, a range of services including floral tributes, charitable donations, newspaper funeral notices, printed service stationery, catering and monumental masonry. We will continue to be available for any aftercare, advice guidance or additional services as required, including access to Dignity Legal Services (excluding Scotland, Jersey and Northern Ireland).

Our service to the person who has died

£795

We will bring your loved one into our care, during normal office hours, using our own fully trained people and only specialist vehicles and equipment. They will be treated with the utmost care, respect and dignity ensuring they rest within climate controlled mortuary facilities. We will care for the person who has died in full accordance with your wishes.

We will dress them in their own clothes if provided or you may choose for us to supply something suitable. We will follow any instructions given regarding presentation, including hairstyles or make-up where appropriate and care for all personal effects. You are welcome to visit your loved one in a private chapel of rest at our funeral home by appointment during office hours.

Your appointed Funeral Director

One of our own experienced and specially trained Funeral Directors will be appointed to personally oversee your chosen arrangements on the day of the service and will guide and support you every step of the way. It is our preference to meet with you in advance prior to the day of the funeral to ensure all your requirements are met, confirm the arrangements are in place, ensure all your instructions are correctly recorded, and any subsequent changes duly noted and acted upon.

On the day of the funeral they will be present at your side throughout to supervise the occasion and direct all in attendance accordingly. They will ensure sufficient pallbearers are available and instructed to escort the coffin with dignity and respect. Your Funeral Director will prepare in advance all locations for the service and committal and ensure the funeral proceeds as you have instructed, along with any other services arranged through ourselves on your behalf.

Our hearses

£395

We will provide one of our chauffeur driven hearses to convey the person who has died in accordance with your wishes. We will discuss with you any specific requirements regarding the processional route for the cortège. Alternative styles of hearse are available on request. Please ask for further details.

Frequent considerations

Our embalming service

£150

Embalming is a personal choice. In some circumstances we recommend the peace of mind that embalming brings. We will discuss this service with you.

Our limousines

£250 each

We can provide as many of our chauffeur driven limousines as required to convey the family and main mourners with dignity, in safety and on time. After the funeral your limousines will wait for you and return you to a local destination of your choice.

Our Range of Coffins and Caskets

We offer a full range of coffins and caskets which include picture coffins and those woven from willow, bamboo and other materials. All your options will be discussed with you at the time of arranging the funeral. We also supply a selection of urns for ashes.
